NEW YORK, MAY 19: LAUNCH OF THE 2017 COLLECTION IN THE USA

After its preview presentation at the Salone del Mobile in Milan, where it received rave reviews, the 2017 Collection made its debut on the American market with an event organized by Minotti New York on Friday, May 19th. Numerous guests, including architects, designers, customers and representatives of the media, all expressed their enthusiasm over the innovative collection.

Joining the Minotti and Hakakian families in welcoming guests was architect Rodolfo Dordoni, who coordinated the 2017 Collection, as well as the previous collections.

The Lawrence seating system, Jacques sofa, Colette, Halley and Fil Noir armchairs and many accessories from the new collection are displayed in a new setting that showcases their inherent features of warm, sophisticated elegance.
