MINOTTI IS A WINNER AT THE WALLPAPER* DESIGN AWARDS 2019

Minotti wins the "Best reflective space" category at the Wallpaper* Design Awards 2019 with the Tape sofa, the design of Japanese creative mind Oki Sato, Chief Designer of Nendo studio. Tape is a collection of seats with a strong personality and flawless proportions, characterised by a light silhouette. The collection owes its name to the sartorial detail used to attach the Light Bronze coloured metal feet to the frame of the chairs.

The prestigious title – awarded by leading magazine Wallpaper* which celebrates the objects, places and people who have proved to be "the best of 2018" – pays tribute to the creativity and quality of Minotti, and to its recent partnership with Oki Sato and the Japanese studio.

The umpteenth in the string of successes, populated by the company's previous awards, it serves to further consolidate the brand's identity on an international level.
